RE: MLSA Tribal Law Practice Group Update

MLSA Tribal Law Practice Group Update:

MLSA staff continue to work remotely from home to provide services by phone, mail, and email. The Tribal Law Practice Group will be available in person at the following communities in June:

- Wednesday, June 15th, Browning
- Wednesday, June 22, Crow Agency
- Thursday, June 23, Lame Deer

If you or someone you know would like to schedule a meeting with MLSA while we're in the area, please contact kburke@mtlsa.org.

MLSA Estate Planning

MLSA's Tribal Law group provides free estate planning for tribal members and descendants. In addition to our will drafting services, we can also draft Power of Attorneys, Living Wills, Beneficiary Deeds, etc. that individuals can use to empower their loved ones to carry out their medical wishes and protect their property. Please let us know if you know of anyone interested in working with us on their estate planning documents in-person or over the phone.

Tribal History Series

The second installment of MLSA's tribal history training series was held on Wednesday, May 25th, "History of the Piikani in a Nutshell" by Iva Croff. A recording of the training is attached below for those interested. Due to an error in our zoom webinar, only the first half of the presentation was recorded, I apologize for the incomplete training.

How to Apply to MLSA

- Apply online at mtlsa.org or MontanaLawHelp.org;
- Call our Helpline at 1-800-666-6899 ext. 149
- Email triballaw@mtlsa.org

What to Do While You Wait on Your MLSA Application

While individuals wait for MLSA to process their application, there are things they can do to help themselves:

- Visit MontanaLawHelp.org for free legal forms and information;
- Contact their nearest Self Help Law Center or Self-Help Connect station for free help with legal forms and information;
- To check the status of an application, call our Helpline at 1-800-666-6899, Monday through Friday, 9am to 1pm.
