

CROW TRIBAL COURT IN AND FOR THE CROW INDIAN RESERVATION

STATEMENT OF REPRESENTATION

CASE NO. _____

Title 3, Chapter 7, of the Crow Law and Order Code provides that any person representing another person or party in an action before the Crow Tribal Court must meet certain requirements. Crow Tribal Court Rule of Practice (RP) 6 requires that a Statement of Representation signed by the party and the representative be filed with the Clerk of Court before any other pleading may be filed or appearance made on behalf of the represented party. A Statement of Representation must be filed in each case for which the representative is authorized to act. A representative is not authorized to sign the Statement of Representation on behalf of the party.

THIS STATEMENT OF REPRESENTATION is submitted to the Clerk of the Crow Tribal Court pursuant to CTC RP 6:

1. I am an Attorney an Advocate admitted to practice before the Crow Tribal Court and in good standing.
2. I am representing the Plaintiff Petitioner Defendant Respondent in CTC Case No. _____ in the Civil Criminal Juvenile Division of the Crow Tribal Court.
3. Service of notices or other matters may be made upon me at the following address (write legibly):

4. If my address for service changes I will immediately notify the Clerk of Court, in writing, of the new address for service.
5. Service is not required to be made on the party I represent.

Dated this _____ day of _____ 20____.
